and Customs Enforcement v. Padilla, 141 S. Ct. 1041 (Mem) (2021). On February 12, 2021, the Supreme Court issued its judgment remanding the case to the Ninth Circuit. See Ninth Circuit Docket no. 79.

On remand, the parties agreed to several periods of abeyance before the Ninth Circuit, in order to allow incoming Department of Justice and Department of Homeland Security officials to become familiar with this case. On July 7, 2021, the Ninth Circuit referred the case to the Circuit Mediator to explore the potential for settlement. See Ninth Circuit Docket no. 86. The parties are now before the mediator, with an upcoming mediation scheduled for September 22, 2021.

The parties believe that this Court should continue to stay proceedings until mediation and any further proceedings at the Ninth Circuit are resolved. Accordingly, the parties have attached a proposed order staying the case to this filing, with instructions that the parties should update this Court upon resolution of mediation or further proceedings, if any, at the Ninth Circuit.
